Friends, If the following is okay with you, I will send it. Let me know please.

Editor, UCLA news

I have written to you, the UCLA editors for weeks regarding SJP and I have been ignored.

If you don't like what Mr Koretz is doing, then don't vote for him next election.

In the meantime, I find your editorial was avoiding the request made by Mr. Koretz and many others and had nothing to do with the issue at hand. In my opinion, your school is engaging in anti Semitic behaviour and you are covering up for it.

I refer you to the N.Y. Times article below to which UCLA ought to take note. Freedom of speech is not an excuse for anyone having to endure threats.

I thought sjp were not allowed to use your logo.
Now you can stop them.

From The New York Times:

Neo-Nazis Have No First Amendment Right to Harassment, Judge Rules

A lawsuit against the publisher of the website Daily Stormer for unleashing an online “terror campaign” against a Jewish realtor can proceed.

Why Is Freedom of Speech an Important Right? When, if Ever, Can It Be Limited?

Even though the concept of freedom of speech on its face seems quite simple, in reality there are complex lines that can be drawn around what kinds of speech are protected and in what setting.

Dear Pablo,

Paul is not running again, as far as I know (unless he eyes a different position, such as a Supervisor as Zev before him).

Everything else is right on point.

Always,

Ari Bussel
